1. NAME

The Charity's name is 'The Isle of Wight Prostate Cancer Support Group'

2. THE PURPOSES OF THE CHARITY ARE:-

i) To provide non-medical support to local Prostate cancer patients, their families and carers; raising awareness of Prostate cancer and its treatment; and planning activities to create opportunities where this can take place.

ii). To provide a regular forum for Prostate cancer patients, their families and carers, to discuss one-to-one or openly, their experiences of the cancer and their treatment; further to discuss generally the cancer services provided on the Island and on the mainland.

iii). To provide a direct link between service providers, those commissioning services and patients, their families and carers.

3. TRUSTEES

The charity shall be managed by a committee of trustees who are appointed at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) of the charity.

4. CARRYING OUT THE PURPOSES

In order to carry out the charitable purposes, the trustees have the power to:

i). Receive funds, receive grants and donations ii). Apply funds to carry out the work of the charity iii). Co-operate with and support other charities with similar purposes iv). Do anything which is lawful and necessary to achieve the purposes

5. MEMBERSHIP

i). The charity shall have a membership comprised of patients, their families and carers, and people who support the work of the charity. Persons who qualify, or who have an interest in the charity and are aged 18 and over, can apply to the trustees to become a member. Once accepted by the trustees, membership lasts for 3 years and may be renewed. The trustees will keep an up-to-date membership list.

ii). The trustees may remove a person's membership if they believe it is in the best interests of the charity. The member has the right to be heard by the trustees before the decision is made and can be accompanied by a friend.

6. ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING –AGM

i). The AGM must be held every year, with 14 days notice given to all members telling them what is on the agenda. Minutes must be kept of the AGM.

ii). There must be at least 15 (fifteen) members present at the AGM iii). Every member has a vote iv). The trustees shall present the annual report and accounts v). Any member may stand for election as a trustee.

vi). Members shall elect between 3 and 10 trustees to serve for the next year. They will retire at the next AGM but may stand for re-election. Elections for Chair, Treasurer and Secretary, will be made by majority decision.

7. TRUSTEE MEETINGS

i). Trustees must hold at least 3 meetings each year. At their first meeting they will elect officers, if this has not occurred at the AGM. Trustees may act by majority decision.

ii). At least 3 trustees must be present at the meeting to be able to take decisions. Minutes shall be kept of every meeting.

iii). If trustees have a conflict of interest they must declare it and leave the meeting while the relevant matter is being discussed or decided.

iv). During the year, the trustees may appoint up to 2 additional trustees. They will stand down at the next AGM.

v). The Trustees may make reasonable additional rules to help run the charity. These rules must not conflict with this constitution or the law.

8. MONEY and PROPERTY

i). Money and property must be used for the charity's purposes.

ii). Trustees must keep accounts. These should be externally and independently validated, for this purpose *appendix A should be used. *Appendix A is an A4 form provided by the Charity Commission. The most recent annual accounts can be seen by anybody on request.

iii). Trustees cannot receive any money or property from the charity, except to refund reasonable out of pocket expenses.
